Tea Exports

Shipments To India
North African Market
The Russian Demand

INDIA continues to take increasingly large quantities of China tea. From the beginning of this tea season till November 6 the exports from here to India comprised 1,019,720 lbs. of black and 3,292,528, lbs. of green, against 697,593 lbs. of black and 2,329,460 lbs. of green during the same time last season and 45,596 lbs. of black and 1,337,729 lbs. of green in the same period of the 1921-1922 tea season. Up till the end of September last the exports to India only amounted to 683,188 lbs. of black and 2,716,528 lbs. of green, so that shipments in about a month's time of China tea to India amounted to 326,532 lbs. of black and 576,000 lbs. of green.

An interesting fact is that tea dust seems to be in great demand in India, for of the quantity of 1,019, lbs. of black tea taken by that country during this tea season, nearly half of it comprised tea dust, the exact quantity of tea dust exported being 510,665 pounds. Green tea dust is not much in request there, for of the quantity of over 3¼ million pounds exported during the period only 46,133 pound comprised tea dust.

The North African markets are potent buyers of China tea, the demand growing constantly from that quarter. At the end of September the taking of North African ports from Shanghai of China tea totalled 144,926 pounds of black and 3,113,297 pounds of green. At the end of October last the exports from the beginning of the season amounted to 239,858 pounds of black and 4,935,017 pounds of green, an increase in one month of 94,932 pounds of black and 1,821,720 pounds of green. Of this quantity tea dust shipments included 70,000 pounds of black and 92,799 pounds of green.

SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA

There is no doubt that a considerable portion of the tea that is going from China to the Continental markets finds its way ultimately to Russia. The shipments of China tea to Russia direct are increasing nevertheless. From the beginning of the season still the end of September the shipments from Shanghai totalled 252,029 pounds against 86,397 pounds at corresponding date last year and 52,662 pounds at 1921. At the end of October the exports of China tea to Russia from Shanghai increased to 362,695 pounds, while at the corresponding date last year the exports read 86,397 pounds. A considerable portion of the shipments from here have been going via Vladivostock, the movement through that point in October registering 281,199 pounds, while in the month previous we only shipped via Vladivostock 174,133 pounds. The shipments to Russia comprise mostly congou.

Canada has been absorbing considerable quantities of China black tea, her takings this season being entirely out of all proportion to any previous year in the history of the tea trade. The remarkable taste for China tea should prove a good source of development in future years. From the beginning of the tea season this year till the end of October we exported to Canada 996,790 pounds of black tea while at corresponding date last year the exports only totalled 48,130 pounds.

GREEN TEA DECLINES

The increase in the Canadian consumption of black tea was offset bp the decline by over half in the consumption of green tea. To make the point more explicit statistics are provided:—From the beginning of the season till October 31,1923 the exports of green tea from here to Canada totalled 302,926 pounds, while at a corresponding date last season the exports reached 722,393 pounds of green teas. The consumption this season by Canada of China green teas is still higher than two seasons ago, the taking at the corresponding date in 1921 being only 157,599. Apprarently there has been a large carry-over in Canada this year of green teas from China.

There has been a notable increase in the exports of China tea to the United States. In the case of black teas exported from Shanghai to that destination the figures show an improvement of some 25 per cent., while green teas as well have been better. From the beginning of this tea season till the end of October there went forth to the United States 7,875,551 pounds of black teas and 5,709,680 pounds of green teas, while at the same time last year the exports only totalled 5,196,934 pounds of black and 4,147,595 pounds of green teas. The exports of black teas this season to the United States rise head and heels over those of the corresponding period of 1921, when only 481,453 pounds were exported up till the end of October of that year. Green teas in 1921 were taken in larger proportion, namely 7,855,442 pounds. These facts and figures give an insight into the fluctuations of the American demand.

Weather

Fine and cold weather. The maximum temperature yesterday was 68.0 and the minimum 34.8, the figures for the corresponding day last year being 66.7 and 56.4.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The Reparations Commission today unanimously decided to hear German representatives on Germany's resources. M. Barthou, the President, announced his intention afterwards to propose the appointment of a committee to furnish data on which the fixation of the German payments for 1924, 1925, and 1926 should be based. Sir John Bradbury feared that the scheme was too restricted.

The experts are expected to collect information on which Italy will base its future Ruhr policy.

(Exclusive China Press)

Munich, Nov. 13.—The Reich authorities are now in full control of the situation here and throughout Bavaria, the attempted revolt of the Nationalist leaders having proved a complete failure. There have been no disorders within the past few days, although feeling is still tense.

Von Kahr is believed to have lost most of his popularity here, owing to the obscure part which he played in the attempted revolt.

The Deutsche Zeitung says that General Von Ludendorff, following the failure of the revolt, informed Von Kahr that he was misled and lured into the attempted coup without knowledge of its real aims. He is said to have asserted that he had no intention of leading an armed revolt against the government at Berlin.

The villa at which Von Hitler was found in hiding, it became known today, belongs to Ernest Hanfastengel, former New York art dealer. The latter is credited with being one of Hitlers chief backers and it is believed that he put up most of the money used in fomenting the ill-timed revolt.

Impasse Is Reached In Conflict Over Naming Successor To Gen. Hsu

Nanking And Local Authorities Each Appoint Their Candidates—Widow's Request For Head Of Assassin As Sacrificé Denied

With the assassination of General Hsu Kuo-liang, chief of the Woosung and Shanghai Constabulary, the Chinese authorities here and at Nanking appear to have come to an impasse tending to corroborate the growing friction which has been reported recently. This from two outstanding instances.

Li Dah-sung, the assassin, as reported previously, has been turned over after trial, by the International Mixed Court to the Chinese authorities here for execution. Yesterday it was authoritatively reported that Tuchun Chi Shih-yuan of this province had made a demand on the local Military Governor for Li's surrender to Nanking—and that the demand is being ignored.

CONFLICT IS ON

After Hsu had been shot the local Military Governor, General Ho Feng-lin, as also previously reported, appointed Lu Yung-chien, a high local constabulary official to fill the vacancy. This action was endorsed at a meeting of the directors of the Shanghai General Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday. Yesterday word was received that Tuchun Chi had gazetted the appointment of Mr. Sung Tseng-kan, a police inspector in Nanking, to fill the slain Chief's post. Sung, it is understood, is already in Shanghai, ready to take office, but General Ho is said to have warned Lu not to relinquish the chieftainship.

Lu officially assumed office on Tuesday, after the local organizations had endorsed his appointment and it is understood that the various bodies, headed by the General Chamber of Commerce, will meet today to protest against the Nanking appointment. Nanking, claiming authority to dispose of such matters in this district, is not considered likely to give up without serious objection and the matter of settling a new chief coldly into office is likely to hang fire for a time.

EXTEND MARTIAL LAW

Martial law has now been extended to Woosung to include the Woosung Forts.

The national colors were flying at half-mast yesterday from the various Chinese police stations and will continue so for two more days. All police officers and constables are wearing broad black arm-bands for the period of mourning.

A startling request, in accordance with the customs of ancient China, was made yesterday by certain members of the Hsu family in connection with the preliminary funeral services for the slain General. The relatives in question asked that the assassin, Li Dah-sung, be executed in front of the coffin and that his head be offered in sacrifice, in accordance with mediaeval practice.

The request was denied by General Ho, who told the widow of General Hsu that the prisoner was required for further inquiries by the Court Martial. The Court Martial was adjourned yesterday in consideration of the services for Hsu.

The two elder sons of General Hsu—Shou-chow and Siao-chow—returned to Shanghai last night from Tientsin. Shou-chow is 17 years of age and was to be married during the latter part of this month in Tientsin, where his father had recently completed the construction of a mansion said to have cost $200,000 especially for the young couple.

BETTER TRADE IS PREDICTED BY HANIHARA

Japanese Envoy To U. S. Sees Improved Business Relations

(EXCLUSIVE CHINA PRESS)

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—Ambassador Hanihara of Japan today was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. When called upon to speak he declared that he expected one direct result of the earthquake catastrophe in Japan to be the stimulation of important commercial relations between Japan and the United States and that their future development would be even quicker than in the past, as they had been "strengthened by new feelings of mutual trust and understanding."

Ambassador Hanihara said that the great reconstruction work with which his country is now faced would solve partly the unemployment trouble, which had been one of Japan's chief worries within recent months.

Train Women To Shoulder Arms, Is Filipino's Cry

(Exclusive China Press)

Manila, Nov. 13.—"Our freedom can only be bought with blood and plenty of it."

This was the declaration made today from the floor of the lower house of the Philippines legislature by representative Pedro Sabido, coalitionist, in an address in which he urged women of the Philippines as well as men to prepare themselves for a struggle for freedom.

"We should revolutionise the present era and teach our women as well as our men such traits as will fit them, if they are called upon to do so, to shoulder guns," the representative said. "Were we to do this, the women could take up arms and fight if there were not enough men left alive to carry the struggle through to success."

The Philippines Senate, at an executive session today, disapproved the appointment by Governor-General Wood of Eulogio Rodriguez as Mayor of Manila. The disapproval of the Senate will have no effect on Rodriguez, as his was an interim appointment by the governor-general and his nomination has not yet been formally submitted to the Senate. Consequently, he will continue to function as mayor.

The action of the senate in this matter is simply carrying out the determination of the legislators to reject all appointments made by the governor-general for the present.

Governor-General Wood, on hearing of the senate's action, issued a statement saying that he would ignore it and that Rodriguez would remain legally in office as an ad interim appointee.

MOMENTOUS SCENES ARE ENACTED IN PARLIAMENT

Dissolution Set For Friday; Elections December 6

PARTIES LINE UP

Liberals Will Go To Polls As Unit, Prediction

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 13.—The Members began to arrive at six in the morning for the opening of Parliament, which is merely a prelude to dissolution. The prospect of an election at an unexpectedly early date, in the absence of a definite statement on the Government's protectionist program, has caused uncertainty in the Party orientation. The ex-Coalitionists, Mr. Austen Chamberlain, Sir Robert Horne and Viscount Birkenhead, all endorsed Mr. Baldwin's fiscal policy while Mr. Lloyd George's pronouncement in favor of Free Trade is expected to lead to a reunion of the Liberals. The Labor Members are united on the slogan "Tariff Reform versus Labor Party Program" and are confident of greatly increasing their representation.

The interest in the political situation was evidenced by the crowds in the vicinity of the Houses of Parliament and by the excitement in the House of Commons. The benches, gangways and galleries, including the new Dominions' Gallery for oversea representatives, were crowded. The Members were eager to know the plans of the Government. When Sir William Joynson-Hicks asked that the question should be postponed on Thursday, there were cries of "We shan't be here."

Mr. Baldwin, on entering, received prolonged Ministerial cheering, while Mr. Will Thorne and other Labor Members retorted "Cheer on December 6."

The Ministerialists warmly welcomed both Mr. Austen Chamberlain and Mr. Neville Chamberlain, while Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd George were accorded an ovation by their Parties.

Mr. Stanley Baldwin announced that he had advised the Crown to dissolve Parliament as early as possible and that it would probably occur on Friday.

Mr. Ramsay Macdonald asked Mr. Baldwin to give time to discuss Mr. Macdonald's resolution

SOUTH AFRICAN COURT FORBIDS BAR ON COLOR

No Justification For Any Differentiation, Is Ruling

(Reuter's Service)

Pretoria, Nov. 13.—An important decision declaring that the color-bar was repugnant to the general law of the land was delivered at the Supreme Court today, arising from an application from the Attorney-Generl for a ruling in the case of a mine manager who was charged with contravening the mining regulations by permitting a native to take charge of a locomotive. Mr. Justice Krause, who presided, laid down that there was no justification for differentiation and that where express statutory provision was absent it was dangerous to hold that the Governor-General had power to make such regulation.

Protest Abolition Of London Exhibits

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 14.—A letter of protest against the anticipated abolition of the exhibition galleries at the Imperial Institute on financial grounds has been issued by the Ceylon Association in London and the Rubbergrowers' Association. The signatories stress the value of the gradually built up exhibits of rubber, tea, timber and other forms of Middle East industries and contend that it would be a disastrous and retrograde step to disperse the collection when the subject of Empire development is so much in the foreground.

CANTON NOW MENACED BY SUDDEN TURN OF SUN FOES

Heavy Attack Launched On 'Southern Capital'

Cantonese Chiefs Take Refuge On Shameen And Hongkong

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Nov. 14.—The troops under the command of General Chen Chiung-ming, taking advantage of the fact that the combined Cantonese troops had concentrated their full force on the left wing have commenced attacking Canton in a large force, pressing on Shilung on the 12th by way of Hoyuan and Tsengcheng. As the communication between their front and rear lines has been cut off, the combined Cantonese troops have been placed in a very difficult position.

Moreover, the portion of the troops under the command of General Liu Chen-huan having mutinied, Dr. Sun Yat-sen yesterday afternoon suddenly returned to Canton and a large number of his troops also returned here last night with the consequence that the city of Canton was thrown into disorder and martial law was proclaimed.

Most of the leading members of the Canton Government such as Mr. Liao Chung-kai, Mr. Yang Shu-kan, General Yeh Kung-cho and General Ssu Lu took refuge in Shameen last night.

In these circumstances, the public mind here is much agitated. All the steamers which left for Hongkong this morning were crowded with refugees. As the Cantonese troops, which had been stationed in the district of the North River, arrived here about noon today, order has been somewhat restored; yet many citizens are now taking their valuable goods to Shameen and are depositing their money in foreign banks.

It has come to light that the reason why Waichow fell into the hands of the combined Cantonese troops on the 10th without any fighting was that General Chen Chiung-ming's troops have shifted a greater part of their force maintained in that city to the district of Tsengcheng.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 14.—A foreign official telegram received from Canton yesterday states that Dr. Sun Yat-sen's forces occupied Waichow on November 10. Another official message from a different source received today confirms this statement, while a third official message through a third channel asserts that General Chen Chiung-ming's forces captured Sheklung on November 12 and that Dr. Sun is still in Canton. The latter telegram adds that trouble has arisen between the Yunnanese and Cantonese forces, thereby weakening Dr. Sun's position.

New York-Chicago Air Line Planned

(EXCLUSIVE CHINA PRESS)

Washington, Nov. 13.—A Junker all-metal airplane, which left New York last night landed in Chicago early this morning after eight and one-half hours of night flying without any intermediate landing. An average speed of 100 miles an hour was maintained during the long journey.

Based on the experiences gained during this flight, interested parties are now considering the organisation of a regular New York-Chicago night air service, using the Junker planes. It is believed that the passenger traffic alone would more than pay for the maintenance of such a service and an effort would be made to obtain contracts for carrying the mails.

Japanese Premier Outlines Polices At Parley Of Governors

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Nov. 13.—Addressing the Prefectural Governors' Conference today, the Premier outlined the policy of the Government, in which universal suffrage, retrenchment of expenditure promotion of agriculture and foreign trade, as well as control of those elements "who make it their constant business to sow seeds of trouble in the minds of good citizens," are the foremost planks. He emphasised the imperative necessity of rigid economy in national and family life.

The Minister of Finance similarly called attention to the growth of national and local expenditures, which were respectively double and treble the figures ten years ago. Taxes and loans had similarly increased, while the economic capacity of the country had decreased until even before the earthquake readjustment had become imperative. He further called attention to the extraordinary expenditure for relief and for preventive measures against a possible economic crisis, to meet which all old and new undertakings, except those of absolute necessity, had been postponed. Subsidies to the local Government had necessarily been suspended or reduced.

FIVE FOREIGNERS IN SETTLEMENT HAVE SMALLPOX

During Last Two Weeks 16 Foreign Residents Have Died

Four foreigners and one Chinese in the International Settlement were reported to have smallpox during the week ended November 11, according to the weekly health report of Commissioner of Public Health C. Noel Davis. One foreigner with smallpox was also reported last week one died of smallpox.

Deaths among foreigners were also large during the week ending November 4, when 11 died. Last week 5 foreigners died of all causes. 155 Chinese died in the preceding week and 129 last week.

The smallpox cases indicate that the usual drive to have all foreigners and Chinese vaccinated will soon become a necessity unless an epidemic is to develop.

During the past two weeks other communicable diseases reported included two foreigners and seven Chinese with typhoid fever, one Chinese with scarlet fever, two foreigners and 23 Chinese with tuberculosis one foreigner and five Chinese with dysentery.

Begging Russian Ordered Deported

Peter V. Volkoff, unemployed Russian, made a mistake Tuesday evening when he stopped a pedestrian at the corner of Nanking and Szechuen Roads and presented him with a letter asking alms. Volkoff had evidently been imbibing strong liquids. The man he accosted happened to be Chief Inspector Young, of Central Station.

When searched at the police station Volkoff was found to be in possession of three other begging letters and $8. Yesterday at the Mixed Court he pleaded guilty to the charge of begging on the highway but asked for clemency on the ground that he was very poor. The Court ordered him turned over to the Chinese authorities for deportation to his native land.

MR. KEYTE TALKS ON "THE MAN WHO REMEMBERED"

Speaks Tonight On "The Way Of The Father"

The Rev. J. C. Keyte took for his text at Union Church last night the story of the prodigal. The story he said was in two modes, the major and the minor, the former having for its keynote Grace and the latter Repentance. Joy gave unity to the whole story, the joy of all good souls and the joy of God. The story is all comprehensive and included in its compass the legalist and the lawless, the calculating and the impetuous, the conservative and the radical, the stay-at-home and the explorer. For a while the responsibilities of sonship were discussed and he showed that the word has a wide all-embracing meaning and applies to nations as well as to individuals. He confined himself for the most part to the experiences of the younger son and said he was not intentionally a spend thrift: his propensity for spending in ruinous fashion was merely incidental. Though foolish he was no fool. At the first he was just a young man in a hurry to make a fortune. Then he was curious to see life and the world where life pulsated. He had good intentions but they were not intense.

"Hail fellow well met" might fitly describe this young man. He found it hard to say "No." His sin lay deeper than in riotous living. It lay in the repudiation of his father's guidance and in the revolt from loving care.

The young man was utterly selfish and never thought how his action in leaving his father's home might affect others. He was more concerned about his rights than about his duties. When misfortune overtook the youth he showed he was neither incurably foolish nor vicious. He realised his mistake and he had the courage to make a resolve when he really came to himself. That showed the stuff that was in him. He did not funk the future; he had learned his lesson and casting aside all else he said "I will arise and go to my father." That meant more than just the bread and butter he now lacked. It meant a determination to redeem the past and rebuild the heritage in the father's house. He had determined too to climb the hill 'Difficulty.' He had truly repented. He had come to a recognition of his moral and spiritual bankruptcy. He was not utterly bankrupt however; he still had valuable assets. He still had courage, the courage which enabled him to say "I will arise and go to my father." Then he had the patience which is akin to determination. And above all he had confidence in his father's nature, otherwise he could never have said "I have sinned."

The soloist last evening was Mrs. Kerr, who sang most sympathetically "How Beautiful upon the Mountains."

Tonight Mr. Keyte will continue his addresses in the Union Church, taking for his subject "The Way of the Father." During the service the choir of Union Church will sing the Anthem "Yea Though I Walk Through the Valley."

BRITISH COURT UPHOLDS JUDGE GRAIN'S DECISION

Nastasheffskys Loses Appeal Against Far Eastern Insurance Co.

Sitting as a Full Court Sir Skinner Turner and Assistant Judge Peter Grain in the British Supreme Court yesterday denied the appeal of A. and F. Nastasheffsky against the Far Eastern Insurance Company. The plaintiffs originally claimed Yen 40,827.76, the amount awarded them resulting from a fire in their premises in Harbin, by Mr. A. D. Blackburn as arbitrator.

The defendants pleaded a broken condition precedent and fraud and won the case before Judge Grain and the plaintiffs appealed to the Full Court against the judgment.

In the decision delivered by Sir Skinner Turner, Chief Judge, he held that it was clear the plaintiffs had broken a clause in the insurance contract which required them to keep the policy in some other place than where the insured goods were stored. He also upheld the defendant's contention that the plaintiffs had first submitted certain figures which they designated as the sale price of the goods insured. When they later discovered that they could recover only the actual cost price under the insurance they changed their contention and claimed that the prices given were cost prices. That act, the Chief Judge held, constituted fraud.

Mr. Tycho Wing, for the plaintiffs, intimated that the case might be carried higher and 15 days to start other proceedings, if they so desired, was granted the plaintiffs.

Stirring Scenes In British Parliament

condemning the Government's failure to deal adequately with unemployment and the European situation and Mr. Baldwin's declaration that the Government proposed to establish a system of tariffs and his expression of opinion that was the sole cure of unemployment.

After Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Ramsay Macdonald had paid a tribute to Mr. Bonar Law, Mr. Baldwin announced that dissolution would probably take place on Friday and discussion of the Labor vote of censure on Thursday. This means an election on December 6.

Mr. Baldwin said that he was so convinced that his conclusions with regard to unemployment were right that it was impossible to remain and attempt to steer the country through the winter of 1924-25 unless he were allowed to use the instrument which Mr. Bonar Law's pledge precluded him using. He had been urged to try and avoid that pledge but he had little skill in finding ways round. The only course for an honest man was to submit his views to the country and take his chance. An election was always disturbing and should be held as speedily as possibley to enable him, if the country gave him the mandate, to incorporate in the next Budget the measures which he believed necessary.

Mr. Asquith condemned a rush election, alleging that the Government was afraid of a full and free discussion which killed protectionism 20 years ago. He declared that all businessmen condemned disastrous disturbance of social and commercial life. He described the allocation of only Thursday to the discussion as an outrage to Constitutional procedure.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain warmly supported Mr. Baldwin's decision.

In the course of a subsequent discussion on the Workmen's Compensation Bill, the Government's majority fell to eleven and twenty respectively on Opposition amendments.

London, Nov. 13.—The shrinkage of the Government's majority did not produce a ripple of excitement in the House of Commons, it being due to a big exodus of Members after the more important speeches.

Big Reductions Made In Japan's Naval Estimates

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Osaka, Nov. 13.—The revised naval estimates for the rest of the current year have been reduced by 39,000,000 yen, including 25,000,000 yen by prolonging the period of construction of auxiliary vessels by twelve months. The estimates for 1924 total 238,000,000 yen, which is a reduction of 40,000,000 yen as compared with the original estimates for this year.

British Minister Returns To Peking

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Nov. 14.—Sir John Macleay, British Minister to Peking, who had been on a visit to Shanghai, returned here on the 12th, and it is observed in Chinese political circles that progress will now be made with regard to various questions such as the railway defence, the approval of trade-mark act, and the Shanghai harbor.

Japanese Budget Figures Are Cut

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Nov. 13.—The estimate of the ordinary budget for 1924 amounts to Y.1,270,000,000, being a reduction of Y.104,000,000 on the current year's figures. It has been further agreed to make a cut of Y.107,000,000 in the expenditure for the rest of the current year.

SPEAKERSHIP IS DISCUSSED BY NEUTRAL M.P.'S.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 11.—A meeting of "Neutral" members of the House of Representatives was held this afternoon in the lesser hall of the House of Parliament to consider the question of the Speakership. The proceedings were quite informal. Mr. Wang Hsieh-chia presided over an attendance of about 120. A motion was submitted declaring that the nomination of Mr. Sun Pao-chi as Prime Minister should be considered by Parliament before the question of the Speakership was dealt with, but apparently other than "neutrals" were present, and several of the latter opposed the motion. Eventually after long discussion the meeting appointed ten delegates, headed by Mr. Teng Han-yi, who should act as mediators between the supporters and the opponents of Mr. Wu Ching-lian and endeavor to arrange a compromise.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 14.—Mr. Wu Ching-lien suggests as a compromise that he should go on furlough and that the Vice-Speaker of the House of Representatives should carry on.

The neutral members describe this as a very clever move, for if Parliament accedes to cut it would be upholding Mr. Wu's claim to retain the Speakership, while it would give the Government an opportunity to carry through the appointment of Mr. Sun Pao-chi and the gold franc question, which the Speaker is pledged to oppose, and Mr. Wu would subsequently resume the Speakership.

NEW VICE-MINISTER

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 14.—The Cabinet has accepted the resignation of Mr. Hu Teh-lin, the Vice-Minister of Finance, and has decided to appoint to the post Mr. Su Hsi-ti, a banker and a close friend of Mr. Wang Keh-ming.

McGraw And Huggins Draw Painful Conclusions From Last Year's Trip

In line with the general inclination to tender the elevated eyebrow to post-season "buck hunting" by major league ball players, it is now intimated from New York that John McGraw and Miller Huggins will sanction no further excursions of this nature by the young men of their employ. Future expeditions, during which the alert and wary buck is stalked to the box office and made captive, must be carried on, now and forever henceforth, without the aid of either Giant or Yank, it is said.

It must be that the worthy Mr. McGraw has scanned the official batting averages and likes not what he sees. Casey Stengel was one of three Giant players to take part in the tour of the Orient during the last off-season. It may be said for Casey that he was more hit against than hitting.

His batting average was well down around 300 this season, whereas he hit for a matter of .370 last year.

The other Giant tourists were George Kelly and "Irish" Meusel. The evidence against Kelly is that he hit .341 in 1922 and a trifle over .300 in 1923. Meusel's record for the two seasons is .335 for 1922 and about .308 for the present season. Furthermore, both have contracted the habit of freezing their shots in the pinches, and Stengel has contracted the habit of sitting on the bench.

Huggins's story is not quite so lugubrious. However, he has found no immediate occasion to laugh and show his molars over the fact that Joe Bush, one of the visitors to the Orient, led the American League pitchers in 1922 and was a somewhat consistent loser this season.

Still, one man's toadstool is another's mushroom. Herb Pennock, who made a left-handed tour of Japan, had his greatest year in the majors.

Wusih Sees Good Basketball Games

Wusih has enjoyed visits recently from two out-of-town teams. Yates Academy, Soochow, sent its junior basketball team up and defeated the Zu Tuh Baptist team 39 to 0. On the same day the Yates football team won from the Wusih Technical, Methodist, in a fine game ending 3 to 1. On last Friday Soochow University Second Middle School of Shanghai arrived here and showed the local teams how to play basketball. They had team work. The first game with the Technical boys was very easy and finished with the visitors leading to the tune of 34 to 5. Then the Third Normal School was the next to bow before the Shanghai boys, but it was great fun, for the score showed a difference of only one point, the final count was 33 to 32.

The Wusih Inter—Middle School Football League had its first game last Saturday when the Technical School won the game from Wusih Middle School. The Technical eleven trimmed their opponents by 5 to 0.

The Dog Watch

By Westa

SOCIETY note: Miss Mildred Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crow, entertained at dinner last night. Covers were laid for four.

One of the four was Betty's dad, so that means, really, that covers were laid for three, since dads are little more than necessary nuisances on occasions of this kind. Of the remaining three one was a mere amah, and amahs as everybody knows are but prepositional excrescences at dinners—in, rather than of the assembly.

From this you will readily deduce that Betty gave the party and if you desire to know the identity of the guest of honor I don't mind informing you, if you can catch the name over my distended chest, that it was none other than Uncle Arthur himself—not half as fat or as bald as the Sour Grapes will make out when they learn of this really recherche affair.

TO start at the very beginning, Miss Crow's gown was the very latest—the very last, as a matter of fact. That is to say: it was the last gown that Miss Crow wears during the day. It was cut Colonial style, with plain bodice and extra long pantaloons. If my friend 'Rene or Ruth Benedict were describing this gown, being technical and unimaginative, I suppose they would dismiss it as a plain Canton flannel robe de nuit. Luckily, however, 'Rene or Ruth were not present, and besides is one to blame if one's dad comes busting in with a guest just as one is about to retire?

WHO man?" asked Betty, all ice, when she saw us coming, at the same time diving into the deepest recesses of her hastily retrieved dressing gown.

"Why, Betty," expostulated Daddy, "Don't you remember Uncle Arthur? Don't you remember when you and Uncle Arthur and Daddy used to go down to the river and watch the fall-down boats?"

"In the garden?" Betty puzzled, trying her best to remember.

"Yes, of course."

"Oh," said Betty, "You mean sail boats?"

BETTY, I saw, had matured in the two odd years that had elapsed since our fall-down boat adventures. In those days Carl and I used to keep a nightly rendezvous with Betty and her amah in the Garden, where with great excitement on Betty's part we watched the yachts as, tilted, until their sails were almost flat against the water, they rounded the anchored sampans that served as marking buoys in their triangular races. In those days he was an enthusiastic yacthsman indeed who derived half as much fun from sailing the fall-down boats as Betty did from watching them as they careened madly around their corners, or narrowly missed collision with the lowly junks and sampans which Betty, by way of differentiating from the more pretentious river craft, designated as poor-mans' boats.

Well, what with Betty's exposition of the Highland Fling, as taught by her dancing teacher, and accomplished in her robe de nuit, the toes of which she stuffed into her dancing slippers to facilitate its execution; and wild races up and down her ample lawn, and her proud exhibition of Jimmie and Jane, particularly Jane, it was a great dinner and a great party.

JIMMIE and Jane?

Yes, Betty's little pair of bantams! Carl bought them for her one day in the Chinese City; the cutest brace of miniature chickens imaginable and a source of endless delight to Betty.

A delight, however, that was not for a time at least without a trace of alloy, for Jane, much to Betty's annoyance and mystification, either refused or declined to lay an egg.

Betty hasn't attended the American School long enough to have delved very deeply into the mysteries of biology, or zoology, or whatever branch of natural history it is that appertains to the aims or ambitions or functions of bantam or any other kind of hens, and if her dad had not remarked casually one day that maybe by and by Jane might lay an egg Betty probably never would have associated Jane with other than purely ornamental purposes. But in his careless remark Carl spilled the beans, with the result that from that day on Betty looked on Jane, first with a coaxing, and gradually, as the egg that her dad had promised was not forthcoming, with a cold eye.

AND then one glad day not long ago Betty hit upon a solution of her problem, and doubtless also of the same problem that with even greater force had been disturbing Jane. For this problem Betty found the answer in a discovery that Carl, if he were anything but a selfconfessed dumbbell, would have hit upon himself in time to have avoided all the pre-egg heartbreaks, namely that to lay an egg Jane must have a nest.

"Stupid!" said Betty to herself, "why didn't I think of that before.

Thereupon she subtracted a nice silken sofa pillow from the stacks of them in the Crow drawing room, and placed it, all nicely hollowed out, on a corner of the porch; taking the precaution it may be added, of making the nest complete by rounding up a dozen golf balls from the far corners of Carl's practice putting green and placing them in the hollow of the pillow.

And sure enough, no sooner did Jane look upon this masterpiece of a nest than she promptly deposited a perfect little bantam egg among the golf balls.

With such a gem of a daughter is it any wonder that Carl Crows?

Small Bore Club Changes Program

As the Rifle Meeting to be held on Saturday and Sunday next has been found to unfortunately clash with the Camps of A and the Customs Cos S. V. C. and the Rifle Meeting of the Shanghai Scottish, it has been decided to alter the time table laid down in the Program, to be as follows.

The Shoot will commence on Saturday at 2oc sharp. Events 1-6 will be fired during the afternoon. Sunday from 9 to 12, and from 2oc on will be devoted entirely to the Unlimiteds which will also carry on over the following week end. Range Officers will be in charge at each firing point. Competitors on arrival will be alloted their target cards and a number, which they will carry through the afternoon.

The Club tiffin will also be postponed as it is an impossibility to get the use of a tent or one of the pavilions. There will be open air tea on the Small Bore Ranges on Sunday about 4oc at which members wives and friends will be welcome. This will be followed by the distribution of the Prizes won. The Club will be photographed previous to tea, and as full a muster as possible is requested, as the photos are to be sent to the S.M.R.C. by request, for publication in the Rifleman.

The closing time for entries will be extended to Friday night. Up to Tuesday evening 17 entries have been received.

PARLIAMENT OF FRANCE MEETS; PREMIER HEARD

Debate On Foreign Policies Is Postponed Until Next Friday

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 13.—M. Poincare presided at a Cabinet meeting today which considered various questions, which will be debated in Parliament, including extraordinary credits, fiscal reform, the electoral law and social insurance.

On the proposal of the Minister of War the Cabinet decided to lay before the Chamber a bill providing for the granting to the National Office of Combattants an annual subsidy or 10,000,000 francs.

The Minister of Finance authorised the introduction of a bill for the modification of the taxes burdening small traders and manufacturers whose annual turnover is less than 150,000 francs.

Parliament this afternoon resumed its labors. The Chamber of Deputies under the presidency of M. Raoul Peret, after a statement by the Premier showing that the question of the control of armament in Germany and the return of the ex-Crown Prince were at present under consideration by the Allied Governments, decided not to begin Interpellations of foreign policy until Friday.

Budget recoveries during October showed an increase of 514,740,000 francs over those for October, 1922.

The Greatest Record Idea

With the Brunswick history of musical achievement before you, it is assured that they do not follow the ordinary.

As an opera must have its maestro, an orchestra its conductor, a drama its director, so have Brunswick Records an authority to guide and translate genius.

Noted directors interpret the musical theme of each record. Thus unites the talent of the artist with the genius of the composer and brings a new guiding hand into record making.

The application of this fundamental necessity has made each Brunswick selection a beautiful musical picture. Each is developed as it would be directed by its creator. And the individuality of the artist is skilfully emphasized.

The phrasing is rendered pure and clear and the tone shadings are without fault. No one who enjoys beautiful music and wishes to hear eminent artists deliver the composer's version, can fail to become enthusiastic over this newest Brunswick accomplishment.

COMPARE Brunswick Records with others.
Hear them on the Brunswick Phonograph.
Then decide what these great musical strides mean in point of superiority and prestige.

Now You Can See the Picture Sensation of the Year!

It is Sensational In More Ways Than One!

"Merry Go Round" almost eludes description, it is so big, so enormous; it is awe-inspiring. Never before has a picture been produced on anything like the lavish scale of this one. The magnificence, the truly artistic construction of the massive sets command instant admiration.

The fact that this picture of Vienna with the splendor of its architecture, the vivid, scintillating life of the Prater, Vienna's world famous "Coney Island," and its true continental atmosphere could be reproduced faithfully, perfectly at Universal City, Calif., will always be one of the wonders of the age.

But in addition to all this, "Merry Go Round" is the picturization of the greatest love story ever written, a story of rare flower like beauty, exotic and poignant. It's a story of love, life, laughter and tears in the court of the emperor, the most gorgeous, lavish, riotous existence ever established. Amid settings of regal splendor and luxury, see the merry go round of life behind the scenes of the Austrian court. A story that will grip you, and hold you entranced from beginning to end; a picture that you will never forget!

This is your opportunity to see the greatest picture of the year!

BRITISH SUBJECT JAILED IN HANKOW FOR SMUGGLING

Alleged Turk's Arm Selling Is Being Investigated

(Independent News Service)

Hankow, Nov. 10.—Saibar Kahn, alleged accomplice with S. Wureh in arms and munitions dealing in Hankow, has been sentenced to one month's imprisonment by Mr. Grant Jones in the British Consular Court.

Kahn was arrested by Chinese authorities at the same time that Wureh was arrested and has already been in a Chinese jail for one month, which Mr. Jones took into consideration in passing sentence. At his trial in the military court in Wuchang it was alleged that Kahn was receiving $300 a month for assisting Wureh in alleged arms smuggling. In sentencing him Mr. Jones said that Kahn was unfortunately one of many in China who for personal profit are selling what may be used against fellow foreigners.

Wureh is still awaiting trial in the Brazilian Consular Court as, although he is a Turk, he is said to have produced papers entitling him to Brazilian citizenship and protection. The Commissioner for Foreign Affairs is now investigation the case with the Brazilian Consulate in Shanghai.

The trial of Alexander Hjeldt, a Finn, who has already been sentenced to 22 months imprisonment for arms dealing, and who has already served a portion of the sentence, will be held in Hankow in the near future. Hjeldt was granted a retrial after representations had been made to Dr. Wellington Koo that he had been 'railroaded' to prison at his first trial.

RHEUMATISM MASTERDE

Another Tortured Victim Cured By Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

What people are saying everywhere is worth believing. And for over thirty years people in all parts of the world have been telling how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured them of rheumatism, often in its severest forms. Here is recent evidence from South Africa, Mrs. G. W. Diedricks, of Lower Main Street, Swellendam, Cape Colony, stating:—

"For three years I suffered agonies through rheumatic pains in my back and shoulders. The pain sometimes compelled me to give up my work; my sleep was always broken and restless. I tried external remedies but only got slight temporary relief. One day a book was left at my door about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I saw therein cures of cases like mine. I took a course of them, and am now cured of this trying ailment."

Rheumatism is in the blood; therefore you cannot rub it out with embrocations and liniments; you must eliminate the uric acid which is its cause from your blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills purify and at the same time strengthen the blood; they make new rich red blood which revitalizes the nerves and the whole system. Dealers everywhere sell them, or post free, $1.50 per bottle, $8 for 6 bottles, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

Spot bar silver was up ¼d. and forward ⅛d. in London yesterday. The New York price advanced to 64⅝ cents and the London-New York cross rate to 437⅞.

At the opening our official Sterling quotation was faised to 3s. 2¼d. and the other rates changed accordingly. As however our market here today was easy, our rates were subsequently dropped to yesterday's leval.

At the opening of our market some business in Sterling was done at 3s. 3d. November, 3s. 2⅝d. December and 3s. 2⅝d. January. Gold Dollars were done at 71 for November delivery, 70⅝ December and 70¾ for January.

However, there were good buyers at these rates and the market eased off until at the close when there were no sellers of Sterling at better than 3s. 2⅝d. November. 3s. 2½d December and 3s. 2¼d. January.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the close at 70¾ for November delivery. 70⅝ December and 70½ for January, and sellers of Yen at 68¼ for November delivery and 68⅜ for December.

Banks were quoting 3s. 3⅜d. for Sterling bills for near delivery and 3s. 3¼d. for delivers after China New York. They were quoting 72½ for Gold Dollar bills for near delivery and 72 for forward, and 1290 for Franc bills.

"Began to think she would never get well."

Our Portrait is of Miss FLORRIE ORGAN, of 100, Clark Street, Ladywood, Birmingham, England, whose father writes:

"My daughter Florrie was suffering with a very bad head covered with Sores and Eruptions, and in fact her mother was afraid to comb her hair. She had been under several doctors, but all to no purpose, so I began to think she would never get well again and lose all her hair. As your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' cured me of Glandular Swellings in the Neck some years ago, and so averted my having to undergo an operation, I decided to give 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' a fair trial in the case of my daughter, and I am pleased to say it effected a wonderful cure in just over a fortnight."

SUFFERERS from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Boils, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, should realise that lotions and ointments can but give temporary relief; to be sure of complete and lasting benefit the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter the root cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes and expels the impurities; that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

-:- Political Refugees -:-

ONE of the important American missionary bodies in Eastern Central China recently called a conference of all of the Chinese workers connected with the organisation and proposed the turning over of all of the churches under the jurisdiction of this denomination to the Chinese for exclusive management and control. The Americans connected with the mission put the matter squarely up to the Chinese and offered them complete authority in the conduct of the religious work, the Americans proposing to move to another section of China entirely. The Chinese Christian leaders considered the question carefully and then informed the American missionaries they did not desire the foreigners to leave the field; that the foreigners possessed something which the Chinese lacked and that the presence of the foreign missionaries residing among the Chinese served as an object lesson in many ways.

In spite of the agitation now so active among certain sections of the Chinese favoring the abolition of extraterritoriality, we often wonder whether the same condition does not exist in respect to this question as was found to exist in respect to the offer of withdrawal on the part of the influential missionary bodys mentioned above. We imagine that if the foreign nations should suddenly offer to withdraw their extraterritorial rights in China today that there would immediately arise a tremendous outcry among the most influential elements in the Chinese population against the withdrawal. There is of course very slight chance at the present status of China of a relinquishment of extraterritorial rights on the part of the foreigners, but we mention the above probability for the purpose of causing certain Chinese leaders who have been leading the agitation for abolition, to do some serious thinking on the subject of what would happen if the foreigners should decide to abandon or modify their stand on this question.

The various foreign powers signatory to the Washington Conference treaties are now understood to be exchanging views in respect to the fixing of a definite date for the meeting in China of the international committee of jurists provided in the resolution on the subject of extraterritoriality adopted by the Conference on December 10, 1921. The date tentatively selected, according to information which has come to our attention is November 1, 1924, but whether it is then or otherwise, the Commission is certain to assemble sometime and when it does meet it is bound to go into the whole question of the practice of extraterritoriality. Chinese agitators and propagandists will of course provide the Commission with the fullest possible information on the side of abolition, but there will be plenty on the other side too. The foreigners who have extensive property interests scattered over China will be ready with their side which, likewise will be skilfully presented and backed up with an abundance of actual examples showing miscarriage of justice in Chinese courts involving not only foreigners but Chinese as well. Mr. Balfour, head of the British delegation at the Washington Conference, must have had this in mind when he made the statement in connection with the discussion on this subject that, "he understood that the difficulty lay not so much in Chinese law itself, as in the administration of this law and that if those who had so ably reformed the laws should set themselves to the task of reforming the courts and administration, an appreciable improvement might be expected."

According to the resolution adopted at the Conference the purpose of the International commission will be to "inquire into the present practice of extraterritorial jurisdiction in China and into the laws and the judicial system and the methods of judicial administration of China, with a view to reporting to the Governments of the several Powers—their findings of fact in regard to these matters, and their recommendations as to such means as they may find suitable to improve the existing conditions of the administration of justice in China, and to assist and further the efforts of the Chinese government to effect such legislation and judicial reforms as would warrant the several Powers in relinquishing, either progressively or otherwise, their respective rights of extraterritoriality."

Now referring back to the beginning of this discussion there is one reform in the practice of extraterritoriality in China which the foreigners in China might very well recommend at once even before the assembling of the Extraterritorial Commission, and that is the continued use of the foreign settlements as a sanctuary by Chinese political refugees. Every foreign settlement in China is crowded with Chinese political refugees who have fled from the interior for various reasons. Some of them are deserving patriots who have come into conflict with stronger interests and have been forced to flee to save their lives. These men should be protected, but the deserving ones are hopelessly outnumbered by a whole host of "notoriously corrupt and greedy refugees who have not only misruled and looted their own people over a wide area of the interior but have made things uncomfortably lively for the foreign trader, traveler and missionary as well." The words quoted are from an article on this subject by Mr. Rodney Gilbert of Peking in a recent issue of the North-China Daily News. In Tientsin for instance there are large sections of some of the foreign concessions which are given over entirely to the palatial residences of former Peking officials who have looted the public treasury and then got away when the getting was good, to enjoy their fortunes and to renew their underground schemings from the friendly protection offered by the foreigner.

By continuing to permit this sort of thing the foreigner is hurting his own case in respect to a continuance of foreign extraterritorial rights. He is deliberately putting into the hands of the Chinese agitators the outstanding argument on the subject of the abuse of extraterritorial rights. By harboring political refugees, many of them with long criminal records behind them, the foreigner is bringing the whole subject of foreign rights in China into disrepute. There have been many suggestions for remedying this abuse and on several occasions since the Republic came into being, the Powers have seemed on the point of doing something, but definite action has never taken place. Mr. Gilbert in the article referred to above suggests the organisation of an international court which shall determine in each case of a refugee accused whether or not he has committed offences which do or do not ban him as a reputable resident of a foreign ruled community living on friendly terms with the Chinese people. If the foreign Powers would take some action along this line they would immediately bring to their side a large number of very influential and powerful Chinese interests who would oppose a relinquishment of foreign extraterritorial rights for purely personal reasons concerned with their bodily safety and in addition it would disarm the extreme Nationalists who are pointing to this abuse as a principal reason for the abolition of extraterritorial rights. And in addition to being right morally, it would be excellent politics for the foreigners.

A Political Monkey-Wrench

THE fact that the Crown Prince has been allowed to return to Germany, and that the ex-Kaiser and his entourage are planning along the same lines comes with striking significance, following the outbreak in Bavaria and the choice by the revolutionaries of so prominent a militarist as von Ludendorff as their leader. It would be idle, and is always unprofitable to indulge in prophecy, especially in such a column as this, but there does appear reason to believe that the world has not yet heard the last of recent developments.

That the Bavarians should have chosen such a personage as von Ludendorff for their leader is strange in the extreme, for he represents the embodiment of that militaristic spirit against which Bavaria has been commonly reported to be opposed. His election to lead the short-termed rebellion evidences two things, firstly that the revolutionists were not opposed to the guidance of erstwhile imperial militarists, and secondly, that those disliking the present government in south Germany considered themselves strong enough, as must also have done von Ludendorff, to embark on such an adventure. It would, by no means, seem to be stretching the argument to suggest that if this military leader considered the attempt worth making, the ex-Kaiser and his son would be of the same mind. Hence a reason for this sudden exodus from Holland into Germany of the leaders of the monarchist party, not doctrinal leaders but those personages about whom the loyalty of the royalists still throws sufficient glamour to make them fitting figureheads for any reactionary struggle that may be contemplated in the future.

On the face of it the German government would appear to be suffering from some sort of autumnal madness, to permit Wilhelm and his son within their borders. They must ever be a focussing point of those who abhor the pasteboard government at present parading as republican and a very real incentive to the promotion of such struggles as that recently experienced in Bavaria. Outside Germany, their very existence was sufficient to cause German Republicans considerable uneasiness, but their presence within the boundaries of their former empire constitutes so real a danger that it is difficult to see what precautions can be taken to minimise its effects.

This would seem to counterbalance any results to be obtained from the suggested deep laid plot of Chancellor Stresemann to create a schism in the ranks of the monarchists in Prussia and Bavaria, in that the return of these two notables will help to revive the feuds between the Hohenzollern and Wittelbach houses on the one side and the personal feud between Rupprecht of Bavaria and the Crown Prince on the other. For history has shown time and time again that the quarrels of the individual will heal quickly under the pressure of common interest and it is undoubtedly to the interest of all the parties we have named, to amalgamate, destroy the present government, replace it with one of their own and thereby revive those fortunes which have suffered so considerably since the conclusion of hostilities.

If this indeed be the case Holland has rendered the world no little disservice by allowing the Crown Prince to leave, or apparently being prepared to permit the Ex-Kaiser to follow suit. It is difficult to see how Holland can reconcile its present attitude with the statements of its government, when declining to hand the German Imperial leaders over to the Allies for trial, to the effect that it fully realised its responsibility from the point of view of international security, and that the Dutch Government would take all the necessary steps to confine the liberty of the Ex-Kaiser within the required limits. The granting of asylum to the imperial fugitive was perfectly within Dutch rights, as was also the refusal to hand him over to his enemies, but it is another matter to suggest that having given promises which faithfully kept would have relieved Europe from that very menace which now appears to be preparing, Holland can lightly break her word and permit to be done that very act which the Allies were so keen on preventing for the sake of the security of the world.

It is no wonder that anti-German feeling is solidifying in Italy, France and Belgium. They see, as probably no other country sees, that with the ex-Kaiser and his son within German borders the possibilities of unrest are magnified a hundredfold. And if the despatch which we published yesterday that the ex-Kaiser's passports are for Berlin is correct, it does not seem as if he was contemplating anything but his emergence into his former capital, the seat of government and the scene of his former grandeur. Had his destination been to the eastern marches of Prussia, it might be argued that he was indeed retiring to an out-of-the-way spot to spend his last, the contemplation days, in his own country.

But instead of this he is proposing to return to the very center of German politics and far from this being indicative of a resolve to abstain from politics in the future it would rather be proof of a determination to be on the spot, to seize every opportunity for the restoration of his former grandeur and the rehabilitation of the fortunes of his dynasty. Someone has playfully thrown a monkey-wrench into Europe's political machinery and we have yet to see the trouble it is likely to cause.

Editorial Comments

It is curious how some of the British Crown Colonies act together on certain issues. The Ceylon Government and also the Government of India decided that purchases of stores on account of the Government should no longer be made solely in London by the Colonial Agents or the India Office but instead tenders should be invited by the authorities from firms in the country. There is much common sense in this suggestion, for, after all, there is no earthly reason why the revenue of the country should not be spent within it. Indirectly it would help to advance the prosperity of the place and give an incentive to merchants to import and stock more largely. The system would be more beneficial than that of sending all large contracts for supplies on Government account to England.

The idea has been catching on, and now come similar requests from Hongkong and from Singapore. A campaign is on foot to induce the governments of these two British Colonies to invite tenders for their requirements from local firms instead of sending their orders to the Crown Agents. The Chambers of Commerce at these two places are supporting the idea whole-heartedly. In the Singapore Legislative Council, we notice that the Hon. Lowther Kemp introduced a resolution calling upon the Government of the Straits Settlements to amend the present regulations, and asking that "all supplies and stores required by this Government should be ordered in future, so far as may be practicable, from or through local traders and contractors instead of the Crown Agents for the Colonies." It is a reasonable request, and there is no reason why if it is put into effect the new plan would not work just as satisfactorily as the present one of ordering Government stores from Government Agents abroad. Local merchants should have the first consideration, and if tenders are invited from firms in these places it would be found that goods could be supplied at almost the same prices as are being charged by the Agents. The authorities in the Straits Settlements appear to think that it would prove an expensive scheme, although there is no reason advanced to support this belief. At any rate, those who are contributing the revenue have a right to ask that the money on Government account should be spent within the country and not without. The considerations in favor outweigh those against, and the day certainly is not distant when the large purchase of goods for and on behalf of Colonial Governments by British Colonial Agents will become a thing of the past.

Stimulating Discourses

WITH EXCERPTS FROM GREAT THINKERS

By Mathy

MENTAL SELF-THOUGHT POISONING

EVERY thought or emotion vibrates through every cell in the body and leaves an influence like itself.

The coming man will find it as easy to counteract an unfriendly, disagreeable thought, by turning on the counter-thought which will autidote or neutralise it, as it is to rob the hot water of its burning power by turning the cold water faucet.

The hatred thought can not live an instant in the presence of the love thought.

"He who hates is an assassin"—and he is also a suicide.

"Right thinking pays large dividends."

One of the most unfortunate convictions that ever entered the human brain is the idea which multitudes of people have that, on account of the weaknesses and disease tendencies inherited from those who have broken health laws for centuries back of them they are not supposed to have a perfect body or good health. It is a wonder that the bodily organs and functions work as well as they do and that there is any such thing as real health with such a cramping, crippling thought: for the body is but a mass of billions of cells so closely tied together and interrelated that they are instantly affected by every vicious thought, mood, or unfortunate conviction.

The normal law of our lives is wholeness. Discord of any kind, ill-health, disease, weakness—is abnormal, foreign to our real selves, to the truth of our being.

New thought builds new cells, life cells, youth cells in the body, just as the old style of thinking, the worry thought, the aging thought, the discordant thought, builds cells which correspond. The time will come when we shall listen to the cry of the cells suffering from disease and discord, just as we now listen to the cry of a child, and shall antidote the discord with the soothing, healing thought balm. We shall speak harmony, peace, health to the discordant cells until the disease is neutralised and harmony reigns.

Multitudes of people are in bondage today to their thoughts. If they want to go on a journey, to write a book, to plead a case at the bar, to sing, to paint, they must first consult their body, and if it says "no" they quit. If it says it is tired or weary or sick, no matter what duty or the great life purpose may say they must wait until the body is good and ready.

But the time will come when we shall be ashamed to refer to our ailments, our physical weaknesses, because it will be regarded as an evidence that, at least in thought, we have sinned: an evidence that we have been holding unkind, unjust, vicious thoughts towards others, thoughts of revenge or hatred, a desire to "get square" for some fancied injury: an evidence that we have been selfish, jealous, or that we have been dishonest, have been taking unfair advantage of others in some way, or that through fear or worry or some other from of mental discord, we have been the victims of self-thought poisoning.

It will be considered evidence that we are not living properly, that we are breaking some of nature's laws, or that our ancestors have done so: evidence that our body has been poisoned by vicious or impure thoughts, that we have in some way lost control of ourselves.

To be healthy, happy, and successful we must be good. There is no other road to true happiness and real prosperity.

In the phonograph records of some of our great singers, the slightest error—a note a little too sharp or flat—is faithfully reproduced. In just the same way every mistake, blunder we make in life is faithfully recorded in our cell phonograph. The phonograph will only say the words that are on the record. You will have to make a record which has on it the words, the sentiment, you want the machine to repeat.

Your poor health today is but the expression of bad or vicious-living phonograph records recorded in your mind somewhere in the past, or in those who have gone before you. These records are scientifically accurate, and, once made, they are certain to be faithfully reproduced.

Few people realise that they are constantly running thoughts through their minds and indulging in emotions and passions which are disease producers. Every evil feeling towards another is a little disease producer. Every discordant thought, feeling or emotion must pay the penalty in the physical manifestation of some discord.

When we are sufficiently tired of expressing disease and physical discords generally, we shall be careful only to record that which we wish to express—harmony, health, truth, and beauty.

:-: Is There A Boss Cell? :-:

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS

A friend of mine believes, or pretends to believe, in what he calls "the Boss Cell." His argument runs somewhat like this:

"A man is simply a walking colony of living cells. These cells, which make up the body with all its members, including the brain, and the nervous system, are individually of no account, not even of as much account as a single bee in a swarm. They are, rather, like the members of a community of polyps, which, working together, build a coral reef.

"But a man has something that neither a community of coral polyps nor a hive of bees possesses, viz: ideas and a will of his own. He can vary his life; he can weigh and consider and decide; he can even conceive the notion of putting an end to his own life, and carry it into execution, perfectly aware of what he is doing.

"This implies the existence in the congeries of cells making up a man, of some central, controlling, overlooking and guiding power. Now, what is that power? Where does it reside? If you set out to hunt it down you discover that the vast majority of the bodily cells have no function other than to obey, to fill their places in the line and do their duty as called upon. The cells of the hands, the arms, the feet, the legs, and other members and parts of the body evidently are not the seat of the master power. But when we reach the brain there is a different story.

"Still, it is clear that the majority of the brain cells, too, are mere factors, having no originating power, and no true individuality. But if we destroy certain portions of the brain we instantly put an end to consciousness, that is to the individuality of the man as a whole.

"It is plain that we have, in such a case, killed, or paralyzed, what I will call the Boss Cell. If the body continues to live after such an injury—as it may in many cases—it exists henceforth only as a community of common cells performing automatic functions like the bees of the swarm, or the polyps of the coral.

"Now, I cannot pretend to say whether the Boss Cell is really a single individual, or a kind of legislative and executive body made up of a number of individuals, great or small. It may be that there is a kind of president cell, aided by a 'cabinet,' and even by a 'senate.' When a man goes mad perhaps that is when the Boss Cell and the senate cells, or cabinet cells, fall out.

"But don't imagine that the Boss Cell simply resembles the queen bee of a swarm. There is nothing of the nature of mere instinct about it. The queen bee is no more a free agent than is any drone or worker in the hive. She always does the same thing in the same way. That sort of action characterizes instinct. Man's doings, on the contrary, are characterised by the exercise of the will, selection, decision, and these emenate from the Boss Cell. The hand doesn't work of its own notion—it receives orders and obeys them, and so with all the other members whose activity constitutes the individuality of human life.

"You ask me whether I suppose the Boss Cell (or the Boss cells) to be absolutely independent of outside direction. Well, no, not necessarily. It may itself be an instrument of some non-physical, or non-comprehensible, controlling power. And I have no objection to your calling that power the soul, if you wish. All that I want to establish in my own mind is the existence of some definite center of conscious control.

"I confess that I do not see how thoughts, ideas, could originate by mere chemical action in a Boss cell any easier than in an ordinary one. But I think I can see how a specially organized cell would be needed to receive such impressions and impulses from, what shall I say?—a higher kind of entity, let us call it super-physical, which is ordinarily described as the soul, or the mind.

"Of course that doesn't bring us any nearer to an understanding of what the soul really is, or what it consists of, but perhaps it smooths the way a little. You may think of the Boss cell as acting like an aerial for the soul waves whose signals it receives, interprets and distributes throughout its system of connections. Either it is that way, or else the soul dwells in the Boss cell, for it certainly does not dwell in all parts of the body."

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy and retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."
J. E. SIMPSON, M. D., Chicago, Ill.

"A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."
J. S. ALEXANDER, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"Have used your Castoria on various occasions in suitable cases and have found it a palatable and efficient laxative, especially in the various diseases of childhood."
CHAS. EDWARD GARDINER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, and always obtain the desired result."
F. GERALD BLATTNER, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

"I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble."
C. A. WILSON, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."
J. A. BOARMAN, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

Bodies Of Dead Couple To Be Sent To U. S.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Amberg, who committed suicide in Hongkong last week, are to be embalmed and sent to the United States, according to reports in Hongkong. Mrs. Amberg took poison and when her husband learned she could not live he jumped out of a window and died from his injuries. Mr. Amberg was the Far Eastern representative of the Universal Motion Picture Corporation and had married his wife in Java just a few months ago. He is said to have been a relative of Mr. Carl Laemmle, president of the Universal organization, and one of the 'movie kings' of America.

Changsha War Lords In Need Of Money Badly

(Independent News Service)

Changsha, November 8.—Both Chuchow and Kweiyang have been recaptured by troops of General Shen Hung-ying, the Kwangsi commander who emerged most unexpectedly during the fighting in Hunan. Tan Yen-kai's forces were almost hopelessly defeated, and both Shen Hung-ying and Chao Heng-ti are planning to envelop the retreating troops of Tan.

The authorities in the city are in painful need of money. They have tried a number of most novel ways of raising taxes, and three more have been projected. The first one hits the poorest of the Chinese working class, the ricksha coolies. Besides the monthly tax of $2, each ricksha has to pay a military tax of $15. The second tax is a one month's surcharge on electric bills making them twice the monthly amount. For this reason many of the people have disconnected the electricity and stopped using electric lamps. However, the officials would not bother with the tedious process of collecting from house to house, but instead they have ordered the two electric companies to advance $60,000. The third method is to float a large amount of government loan bonds which will be sold to the merchants.

Filipino Jazz Player Fined For Disturbance

Discord instead of harmony reigns in the ranks of one of Shanghai's Filipino orchestras as a result of which Viligio Torres, musician, was fined gold $5 by U. S. Commissioner Nelson E. Lurton yesterday morning.

Torres was charged by Francisco Reyes, a member of the same orchestra, with having assaulted him and disturbed the peace of the Reyes household on Haining Road. Torres is alleged to have started the fight by declaring that Reyes was a "bum piano player."
